

Mexican National Soccer Team Head Coach Miguel Herrera Visits Walt Disney World Resort

LAKE BUENA VISTA, FL (Thursday, May 7, 2015) – Photos and b-roll are now available of today's Mexican National Team Head Coach Miguel Herrera's appearance at Walt Disney World Resort (see links below to video and photos).

Herrera, along with Mexico's Director of National Teams Héctor González Iñárritu, were guests of Disney at the Magic Kingdom near Orlando, FL, where Herrera kicked a soccer ball around with Mickey Mouse and kids in front of the iconic Cinderella Castle. After visiting the Magic Kingdom, they toured the soccer fields at ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex at Walt Disney World Resort.

The two are in the Orlando area to preview the Mexican National Team's upcoming FMF Tour match against Costa Rica on Saturday, June 27 (6:00 p.m. ET). ESPN is the broadcast partner of the Mexican National Team's 2015 US Tour.

Tickets for the match are available via www.Ticketmaster.com, by calling 1-800-745-3000 or at all Orlando-area Ticketmaster locations. The Federación Mexicana de Fútbol invites fans to use their Visa cards.

To download b-roll and sound in English:

<https://www.RelayIt.net/?c=CNMbj9Mp34ctqLnHscwN437fj27q8xp3bfdG>

To download high-res photos, b-roll and sound:

<http://disneysportsnews.com/galleries/2015/05/07/mexico-national-soccer-team-head-coach-miguel-herrera-visits-walt-disney-world-resort/>

Match Credentials

The media accreditation application for those planning to cover the match at the Orlando Citrus Bowl is available online by CLICKING HERE. The deadline to submit a credential application is Saturday, June 20. No credential applications will be accepted after the deadline.

www.SUMworld.com

###