

NFL, Disney & ESPN Press Conference on June 1 in Orlando

The National Football League (NFL) together with Walt Disney World Resort and ESPN will hold a press conference at 2:45 p.m. ET on Wednesday, June 1 to make a major announcement at ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex at Walt Disney World Resort. NFL, Disney, ESPN, Florida Citrus Sports, City of Orlando and Orange County representatives will be in attendance.

Interviews with the following NFL, Disney, ESPN, Florida Citrus Sports, City of Orlando and Orange County executives will be available: Roman Oben, NFL Director of Youth Football; Peter O'Reilly, NFL Senior Vice President of Events; Maribeth Bisienere, Senior Vice President of ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex and Disney Springs; Steve Hogan, Chief Executive Officer of Florida Citrus Sports; Buddy Dyer, Mayor of the City of Orlando; Teresa Jacobs, Mayor of Orange County; Scott Guglielmino, ESPN Senior Vice President of Programming; Charles Woodson, Nine-time Pro Bowler and ESPN NFL Analyst

Additionally, there will be opportunities to shoot b-roll of youth football clinic with students from Edgewater High School in Orlando, beginning at 2 p.m.

The press conference will be held on Field 17 at ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex.

NOTES/CREDENTIALS: Media will park in the main parking lot at ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex. Media should park in the rows closest to the front entrance. All media attending must check-in at the credential table near the entrance of the sports complex. NFL and Disney personnel will be on-site to direct media to Field 17 inside.

Please RSVP to confirm attendance

Angela Alfano

National Football League

Angela.Alfano@NFL.com