

National Football Summer's 7-on-7 Back at ESPNHS Games

Competition features some of the state's top skill position players; ESPNHS Games will also showcase nation's top high school athletes in football, lacrosse, softball, basketball, baseball, track & field and field hockey

LAKE BUENA VISTA, Fla. – For the third straight year, the ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex will play host to some of Florida's top high school football programs, along with two teams from New York, as part of the KSA Events National Football Summer's 7-on-7 games.

The games spotlight the best high school players from the game's seven skill positions – quarterback, running back tight end, wide receiver, linebacker, cornerback and safety. This year's competition features schools from throughout Florida, including Orlando, Tampa Bay and South Florida, as well as schools from New York.

Orlando:

Gateway
Jones
Seminole
West Orange
Winter Park

Tampa:

Freedom
Lecanto
Newsome

South Florida:

Atlantic
Booker T. Washington
Miami Carol City
Miami Westminster

Other Florida Areas:

Avon Park
Cocoa

New York:

Lawrence
Pearl River

The 7-on-7 games are part of the summer's ESPNHS Games, a three-week long series of competitive events featuring the top high school athletes in sports such as football, lacrosse, softball, basketball, baseball, track & field and field hockey.

The ESPNHS Games also include the Champion Gridiron Kings, the nation's premier high school football event that showcases 64 of the best skill position players in the country through skill challenges and performance training.

Gridiron Kings as well as several other ESPNHS Games will be televised by ESPNU. The ESPNHS Games continue through July 30.