

Brazil soccer star Kaka visits ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex

Brazil soccer star Kaka stopped by ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex on June 11, visiting with Brooks Johnson's team of Olympic-caliber athletes, along with meeting Mickey Mouse.

On vacation with his family, it was another opportunity for the worldwide soccer sensation to see the complex, visit with Mickey Mouse and engage Olympic-caliber athletes training at the complex.

While here, Kaka met with the media and talked about the complex, the importance for young soccer players to get international experience at the Disney Cup International and his thoughts about preparing for World Cup.