

Registration for Disney Field Hockey Showcase Underway

LAKE BUENA VISTA, Fla., and COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (May 29, 2019) – Registration for the 2020 Disney Field Hockey Showcase, a USA Field Hockey sanctioned event that attracts the top youth players in the nation begins Wednesday, June 19 at noon ET.

Registration details will be announced in the coming weeks but in the meantime teams can contact Disney Field Hockey at (407) 938-3806 for more information.

The 2020 Disney Field House Showcase is January 31-February 2 at ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex at Walt Disney World Resort, and will offer five age divisions — U-12 Co-Ed (7v7), U-14 Girls (7v7), U-14 Girls (11v11), U-16 Girls (11v11) and U-19 Girls (11v11).

The Disney Field Hockey Showcase, which annually draws more than 100 of the top collegiate coaches and representatives to recruit the best players in the country, has grown in popularity over the years. After making its debut 13 years ago with 56 teams, the event's field has swelled to more than 2,200 athletes this year with more than 2,500 expected for the 2020 event.

The Disney Field Hockey Showcase is one of several elite youth sports events at ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex, one of the premier sites for amateur sports in the nation. The sports complex also hosts the AAU National Championships in basketball, volleyball and track and field, the Pop Warner Super Bowl, Disney Soccer Showcase, Summit All-Star Championships (dance and cheer) and the Jr. NBA Global Championships.

In all, more than 100 entertainment and sporting events take place at the sports complex each year and the venue has accommodated 70 different sports featuring athletes from 70 different countries since opening its doors in 1997.
